

Fouad Ismaiel Fouad Arif has been active in Northern Iraq since 2008 mainly as Manager for all marketing related issues at Shimal Oil company in Sulaymaniah. His position has enabled him to liaise with different federal entities within the country as well as implementing more specifically fuel oil contracts outside the country.

His education in Baghdad and later at Sulaymaniah University in Science allows him to be versatile in various areas. He is an excellent communicator, has writing skills and is a hard worker, all of which made him capable to work easily within a team.