

Diane Najar, has been developing the family business since 1993 focusing in financial and real estate investments. Since 2008, she started a company in Peru, MONET, providing financial inclusion for unbanked people with no access to banking or credit cards. She has been working with several governmental institutions while applying for a formal license to operate in the market. She is also involved in Oil and gas developments in Iraq where she wishes to contributing to the reconstruction of the country. She is also involved in social projects and more particularly in education.